

UNIVERSITY OF HAWAI‘I-LEEWARD COMMUNITY COLLEGE
FACULTY SENATE

CHARTER AND BYLAWS

Preamble

The University of Hawai‘i-Leeward Community College Faculty Senate has been established by authority of the University of Hawai‘i Board of Regents. The Faculty Senate provides a formal, independent voice and organization, and, through its Bylaws, establishes formal procedures by which the Faculty of the College can work in a collegial manner with their administrative colleagues. The Faculty Senate is committed to developing and implementing policies that will provide a favorable environment for learning within the University of Hawai‘i System. The Faculty Senate shall also promote communication and mutual understanding among members of the faculty, staff, lecturers, administrators, students, and the community.

I. CHARTER

ARTICLE I

Purpose and Functions of the Faculty Senate

- Section 1. The Faculty Senate shall serve as the policy-recommending and advisory body of the Faculty. On behalf of the Faculty, it is responsible for making recommendations to the Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs/Chief Academic Officer and Chancellor of Leeward Community College, the Vice President for Community Colleges, the President of the University of Hawai‘i System, and the Board of Regents.
- Section 2. "Policy," within this Charter, means a general rule for the operation of the College and the conduct of its faculty, students, and administrators and includes, but is not limited to, the following:
- A. general education and academic matters of the College and its operation as a campus of the University of Hawai‘i System.
  - B. review, evaluation, and development of instructional, academic, and student support programs.
  - C. budget and finances.
  - D. evaluation of faculty members and campus administrators.
  - E. faculty-administration relations concerning the evaluation and selection procedures of candidates for administrative positions.
  - F. faculty-staff relations.
  - G. faculty-student relations.
  - H. professional ethics and conduct of its members.
  - I. other areas determined by the Faculty.

- Section 3. The Senate may accept such other responsibilities as the Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs/Chief Academic Office and the Chancellor of Leeward Community College, the Vice President for Community Colleges, the President of the University of Hawai‘i System, or the Board of Regents may assign to it.
- Section 4. In carrying out the aforementioned functions and responsibilities, the Senate shall amend such Bylaws, rules of order, and regulations as it may deem necessary.

ARTICLE II

Recognition and Transmission of Senate Actions

- Section 1. The transmission of, receipt of, and response to the Senate actions shall follow the procedures set forth in the current University directives relating to faculty involvement in academic policy.
- Section 2. The Chancellor, or other appropriate administrative official of the College, shall respond to Faculty Senate communications within a reasonable time, normally no more than 30 days unless otherwise mutually agreed upon.
- Section 3. The Faculty Senate, likewise, shall respond to requests from the Chancellor or other administrator within no more than 30 days unless otherwise mutually agreed upon.
- Section 4. Official communications between the Faculty Senate and the College Administration shall be in writing, responsibility for which shall rest with the Chair of the Faculty Senate and the Chancellor.

ARTICLE III

Relationship of This Charter to Collective Bargaining Agreements

- Section 1. Any agreement negotiated between the Board of Regents and the duly authorized bargaining agent of the Faculty under Act 171, Chapter 89 of the Hawai‘i Revised Statutes, shall supersede any provisions of this Charter, or the Bylaws made pursuant thereto, with which they may conflict.
- Section 2. Should any provisions of this Charter, or Bylaws made pursuant thereto, be superseded for reasons stated in Section 1, all remaining provisions are separable and shall remain in effect.

ARTICLE IV

Members of the Faculty and the Faculty Senate

- Section 1. The Faculty includes Board of Regents-appointed full-time and half-time faculty and lecturers. Full-time and half-time faculty shall have the right to vote on such matters as may be submitted to the Faculty for a decision, including the elections of members to the Faculty Senate. Right to vote should also include lecturers teaching at least eight credits at the College. Part-time faculty should be defined as lecturers teaching seven credits or less.
- Section 2. There shall be a Faculty Senate composed of 22 members or 10% of the full-time Faculty, whichever is greater, on the rolls as of September 1 each year. The Lecturer Group is guaranteed on the Faculty Senate at least one voting member who teaches at least eight credits at the College, with such member to be either elected or appointed by the Senate Chair. To insure that all Divisions of the College are represented in the Faculty Senate, one additional Senator shall be appointed from each Division not represented by an elected Senator. The method of appointment and the definition of Division are stated in the Bylaws.
- Section 3. All full-time and half-time BOR-appointee Faculty members are eligible for election to the Faculty Senate except those in administrative positions listed in the Bylaws. Lecturers teaching at least eight credits at the College are also eligible for election, with no more than two lecturers at any one time.

ARTICLE V

Election and Term of Office

- Section 1. Elections for the Faculty Senate shall be held in the Fall semester of each year, following the procedures set forth in the Bylaws.
- Section 2. Senators shall be elected for a two-year term, one-half of the Senate being elected each year. The Lecturer seat shall be filled on an annual basis.
- Section 3. Term of office shall be limited to three consecutive two-year terms.
- Section 4. Senate vacancies shall be filled in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Bylaws.

ARTICLE VI

Amendment of Charter

- Section 1. Amendments to this Charter may be proposed by the Faculty Senate or by a petition signed by no fewer than 20% of the voting members of the Faculty. After introduction by a Senator or receipt by the Secretary, a proposed amendment shall be given first reading at the next meeting of the Senate.
- Section 2. Consideration of a proposed amendment shall be given by the Senate at the next meeting following first reading. The proposed amendment of the Charter may itself be amended at this time by a two-thirds majority of the Senate. The Senate shall then transmit to the Faculty its recommendations concerning the proposed amendment and shall schedule a vote on the proposed amendment (as it may have been amended).
- Section 3. A two-thirds majority of all voting members of the Faculty is required for approval of the proposed amendment.
- Section 4. All amendments to the Charter shall be submitted to the Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs/Chief Academic Officer and the Chancellor for transmission to the Vice President for Community Colleges. They shall become effective upon approval by the Chancellor and the Vice President for Community Colleges.
