

DE Committee Report to Faculty Senate
January 10, 2020

The committee has started the DE Self-Assessment process in Fall 2019 and are continuing it through Spring 2020.

First round of selected DE instructors selected have been notified. Selected faculty has been sent resources.

The DE Committee held a convocation session on the DE Self-Assessment Process. This session was open to all faculty. Those selected were also directly invited to attend via email. Session was well attended and faculty were very supportive of the process after learning more about the process. The DE Committee will conduct additional repeat sessions of the convocation session in Spring 2020.

The DE Committee developed a FAQ document for the DE Self-Assessment Process

The DE Committee is coordinating with the EMC in offering professional development workshops on Fridays to help faculty with DE Guideline 5 (Interaction). These sessions will be offered throughout the Spring 2020 semester.

Innovative Online Teaching Award (IOTA) has been renamed and revised as the Excellence in Online Teaching Award. The new rubric and requirements are posted on the Leeward CC Award website.
