

General Education Learning Outcomes (GELOs)
Proposed Revisions by AA Task Force

	Outcome
Arts, Humanities, and Sciences	Use the concepts, theories, and methodologies in arts, humanities, natural and social sciences to examine natural phenomena or to evaluate human experiences.
Written Communication	Develop, support, and communicate ideas to a particular audience through writing.
Oral Communication	Develop, support, and communicate ideas to a particular audience through speech and writing.
Information Literacy	Find, evaluate, and use information.
Quantitative Reasoning	Apply quantitative reasoning to solve problems, interpret answers, and communicate results.
Critical Thinking	Use critical thinking to address issues and solve problems.
Cultural Diversity	Describe and analyze the nature of culture and its variations, past and present.