

When extending Work at Home Use Rights, you and your affiliates must make reasonable efforts to ensure that faculty, staff or other employee users delete such copies from their computers at the end of the agreement term. It is recommended that your licensed users officially accept the terms of the Academic Open 6.x agreement and sign an acceptance form when media is distributed. This information would then be stored in your database. For example, you may create a form that users sign stating (but not limited to) the information below.

Academic Open 6.x Sample Staff/Faculty Users Acceptance Form

This acceptance form is valid for the Microsoft products checked below, which shall be referred to collectively herein as the "Software". Software is made available to you because University of Hawaii has purchased software licenses for the Software through a Microsoft® Academic Open 6.x agreement. University of Hawaii is extending to you the right to use the Software for work-related purposes at home. You are not licensed to use the Software at home for personal purposes. You do not own the license, the Software, or the CDs. You will be required to remove the Software from your home machine immediately upon the earlier of (a) any event which causes you no longer to be a faculty or staff member or employee of the institution for any reason or (b) expiration of the authorization number under which the licenses were purchased.

University of Hawaii will receive a Volume License Key that will allow multiple installations of the Software. This Volume License Key will be distributed to staff/faculty users as needed. Holders of this Volume License Key are required to keep it secure and only distribute it to employees authorized to install and distribute the Software on the designated machines. You will be held responsible for unauthorized use of your unique Volume License Key.
